

America's Angelic Beauty

Online Pageant

We thank you for your interest in the America's Angelic Beauty online pageant system. As a potential titleholder candidate, your willingness to learn more about the unique opportunities our pageant has to offer is key to your success in this system.

America's Angelic Beauty has been operating since 2005, and we take great pride in our Winners' Gallery which displays several photos of our royalty. If you are interested in learning more about the types of prizes and viewing examples of the seasonal royalty attire awarded, please take a moment to visit the Queens' Gallery page.

The America's Angelic Beauty pageant system is owned by Pageant Emporium. Pageant Emporium (aka Pilato Productions) is an online resource and production company that has been producing pageants since 1999. Pageant Emporium also owns Tiara Connection and Glitznglittergraphics.com. This networking has allowed us to keep our entry fees down because the cost of operation is kept to a minimum. This drastic savings is passed on to our contestants. We are able to offer the biggest and best prizes available in the online pageant industry, and our professionally designed website and promotional materials showcase our winners with the prestigious recognition they deserve!

America's Angelic Beauty is also a Mailinpageants.com approved pageant. Please visit the Mailinpageants.com website to view the glowing descriptions and referrals that have been turned in by former Queens.

In addition to being featured on our website, promotional materials, and banner ads, our winners have appeared in several national pageant publications. We challenge you to peruse publications such as Pageantry Magazine, Supermodels Unlimited, Banner & Crown, and Patsy's Magazine without stumbling across a King or Queen photo turned in by a Pageant Emporium competition.

PAGEANT ENTRY

Now that you've learned a bit about what our pageant has to offer, let's get to work on your entry! 😊

America's Angelic Beauty pageant is a level pageant. There is a local, state and national level. A key benefit of this competition is the automatic level advancement. Contestants pay just 1 fee!!! If the entrant wins the local level competition, he or she automatically advances to the state competition. If he or she wins state, the advancement to nationals is also automatic. NO ADDITIONAL FEES FOR STATE AND NATIONALS!

The scoring criteria for each level is the same. The scoring is based on beauty and titles earned through previous pageants. The point scale for titles is posted on the website.

NOVICE CONTESTANTS

If you are a pageant novice and don't have a list of titles to submit, you may still enter the pageant. Because titles are factored into the overall score, you might opt to select the economy package entry ($10 for all 3 levels) in order to help rack up some titles for the following season(s)' competitions.

There are also several free online photo contests you could enter to help accumulate titles. There is a list at:
